New Business

Hank Strodemier was voted in as a new club member.

Specialty

- Jenny Merritt reported that the premium list is out with but a few mistakes: both Best in Sweeps and Best Puppy events will be on Friday but no Best Bred by Exhibitor was listed. Jenny said that BaRay got the Premium List out this year in a timely manner.
- The Club will support the entry for the Sammamish Kennel Club show on Sunday. Jenny said that she had resent the trophy list to Bo.
- Cassie Malloy reminded everyone that, in the past, cookies for the barbeque have been purchased from Costco. She suggested home-made cookies would be nice for this year. Cassie will send out a club-wide email requesting volunteers for this task.
- Jenny Merritt said that the only change in the arrangement of the show this year is that a whole working dog group has been added and the rings will be closer together.
- Jenny said she would go to the show-site on Thursday.
- Cassie Malloy said she will contact Kristy Strunks about doing the auction again this year.
- Cassie Malloy will send out a club-wide email requesting trophy donations. The trophy committee will send out letters to all club members with the sole purpose of asking for trophy donations.
- Jenny Merritt will order two tables for the club and suggested that tape and paper be brought so that both tables can be labeled to prevent non-club members from taking said tables.

RDO

Jenny Merritt said that she will contact Coleen Case on this matter. Jenny said that the All Terrier Club had been invited to take part and that she would be scheduling a committee meeting to discuss RDO with them. Jenny reported that the optimum time to hold RDO would be either of the first two weekends in October. Jenny said Marji Haley had made inquiries at the Academy of Canine Behavior in Bothell and found that October 4 was available for this event. Jenny went on to say that the All Terrier Club had the Kellogg School in mind for this event. Jenny said that this topic will be tabled until after the committee meeting takes place. Cassie Malloy asked that she be informed of the date and time of the committee meeting.

Meeting adjourned.
